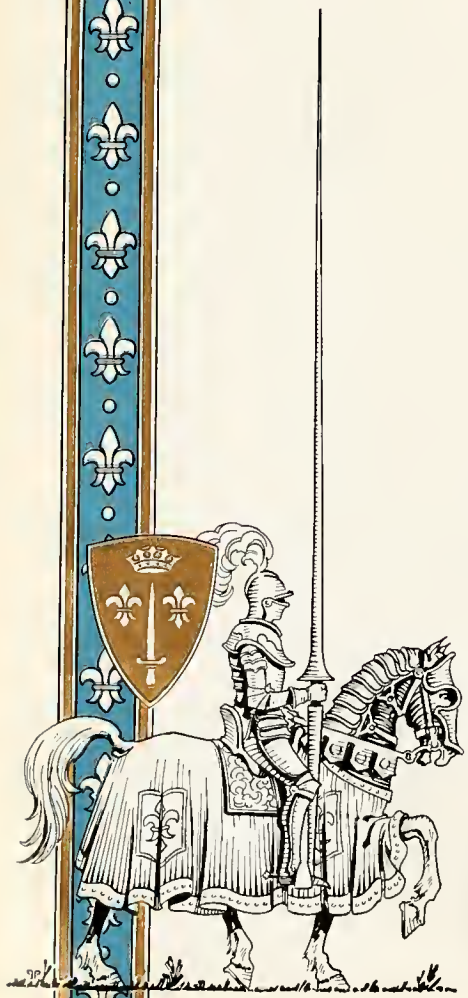
Prologue

"Yet the true poetry, herself, like thee,
Childlike, herself, like thee, a shepherd maid
Gives thee her birthright of Divinity,
And lifts unto the stars thy starry shade.
Thy brows receive the aureole of the sky;
The Heart created thee—thou canst not die."

— Schiller "MAID OF ORLEANS"



Sweet and resonant, from out of the ever coursing stream of history, there comes echoing and re-echoing the soft clarion call of our immortal Maid of Orleans. She is no archaic figure; she is no forgotten symbol of ages gone, of ages dulled beneath the aura of a lovelier, more appealing present. She is the eternal eidolan of youth, the spirit of faith, of purity, of undaunted ever advancing progress. Joan of Arc, the little peasant girl; Joan of Arc, the Savior of France! How incongruous, seemingly. And yet, what exquisite patterns have been woven out of obscurity!

In the life of this maid, in her all-embracing love of country, of ideals, and of the divine essence of things, she embodies the hallowed ritual of youthful hopes. She has set for us the sublime standard; she has bequeathed to the ages of all time a heritage based on those things sacred and quintessential.

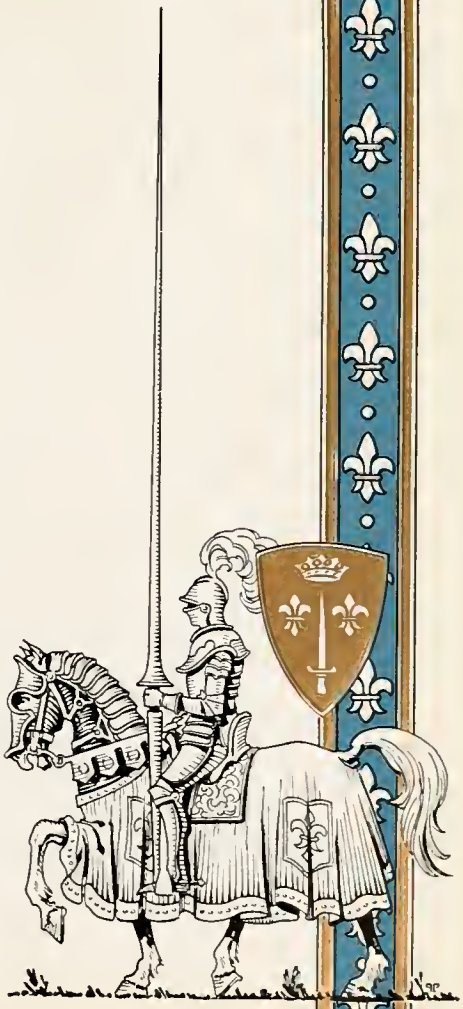
To us, the members of the Senior Class, has come the desire to express the spirit of Flora Macdonald, our love of Alma Mater, our devoted adherance to the principles of life and beauty, and our sincere belief in the faith and strength of youth. It has not been an easy task. The pen is too impotent, too immature for such a mammoth undertaking. Therefore, we have chosen for the theme of our yearbook the commemoration of one who, in life and death, exemplified in a more articulate way the very virtues which we would express. If this portrayal should, in the tomorrows of the future, serve to strengthen the bonds which grapple us to our Alma Mater; if it should, in some slight way, enable us to live over once more in reverie the sweetness of these friendships which so benignly bloom today, we shall not have labored vainly.



Dedication

To

KENT BENTLEY, B.M.
Dublin, Va.

E. X.

"How her fingers went when moved by note
Through measures fine, as she marched them o'er
The yielding plank of the ivory floor."

Dependability—That just says Kent. When she says she'll do a thing it's as good as done. We always think of Kent's talent in music, but, "Bent," you will linger in the hearts of your classmates long after the melody of your music has died. Here's to your success and happiness always.

"A perfect woman nobly planned
To warm, to comfort and command."

Those who know "Sin" realize what a true and rare friend she can be—which makes it unanimous. There is always laughter and fun when she's around and her presence as a member of the class of '32 has meant a great deal to us all. Success to you, Sin.

1929-'30—Hockey Squad.
1930-'31—Corresponding Secretary of Z. Society; Associate Editor of Pine and Thistle.
1931-'32—Hockey Team.

"Modesty is a diamond setting for female beauty."

The Jewel in our midst is Bertha. Although quiet and unassuming she impresses one instantly with her rare blond beauty and friendly ways. There are many things we could say but we'll just wish her the best of luck in everything.

"Who loves the rain,
And loves his home,
And looks on life with quiet eyes,
Him will I follow through the storm."

She is so unassuming, quiet and frail to the observer, but to those who know her she is a pillar of strength. Calm and tranquil, deep as a smooth flowing stream, she is a benediction to all whose lives she enters, and her path of life is a way of peace.

LIZZIE ELLIS, A.B.

"Be true to your word and your work and your friend."

That has truly been Janie Margaret's motto and that's why everyone who knows her loves her. There is never a favor too little or too big for her to do. No obstacles in the world can defeat such a fighting spirit as hers on the athletic field.

1930-'31—Class Hockey Team; President of Conservatory; Vice-President of Z. Society; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Social Chairman; Class Statistics; Conference Delegate.
1931-'32—Class Hockey Team; Hockey Varsity; Monogram Club; Conference Delegate; Senior President; Student Body; Student Council; Senior Scribbler; May Queen.

"A maid—That paragons description and wild fame;
One that excels the quirks of blazoning pens
And in the essential vesture of creation
Does bear all excellency."

Old '32 just wouldn't be the same without Eunice. As president of the class she has guided our barge with ability and enthusiasm. Besides this, we will think of her not only as Queen of May, but of Hearts.

LUCILLE HUNTER, A.B.
Derita, N. C.

Z.

"The choicest articles are often done up in the smallest packages."

Yes, Lucille is a small package but the old saying expresses the situation exactly. In the four years we have known her we've all learned what a "choice article" she is and we're wishing her the best that life holds.

ANNA JENKINS, B.M.
Brevard, N. C.

Z.

1930-'31—Sub-Chairman of Circle; Assistant Editor of Pine and Thistle; Class Poet; Chorus.
1931-'32—Class Poet; Vice-President Z. Society.

"For I dipt into the future far as human eye could see, Saw the Vision of the world and all the wonder that would be."

To understand Anna's real self one must hear her play one of Beethoven's Sonatas or a Chopin Etude, or read one of her own poems, for there you delve down past the surface and see the beauty, the music and poetry of her. And, Anna, may your fondest dreams of your old English home and your Pipe be realized.

MARGARET KELLY, A.B.
Southern Pines, N. C.

Z.

"And the young child who takes thee by the hand, Shall travel with a surer step to heaven."
"For true you are and sweet,
Beyond mine own belief in womanhood."

Like that flower of exquisite loveliness and rare fragrance, the trailing arbutus which, modestly hides its beauty close to the earth 'neath leaves and larger growth is Margaret. So modest, with such sweetness and purity of soul, gentle yet capable and brainy! Surely the youth whom she teaches will leave her tutelage with higher ideals, stronger in faith and nobility.

INEZ KIKER, B.M.
Peachland, N. C.

1928-'29—Type Editor of Annual; Violin Quartet; Orchestra.
1929-'30—Orchestra.

1931-'32—Second Vice-President of Z. Society; Prayer Band Leader.

"When I say prayers at evening,
This is the thing I ask
God make me braver tomorrow
Paint me a brighter Mask."

Who is dearer to us and more necessary to our lives than Inez? Inez, father confessor to us all, the Advisor in all our troubles, fighting her own battles bravely, showing to the world a smiling face always, making us ashamed of victimizing others with our moods, fearless in expressing her beliefs and opinions and with a mind that conquers the seeming impossible.

1931-'32—President of Virginia Club; Senior Scribbler; Hockey Team; Class Prophet.

"She is her selfe of best things the collection."

Attractiveness,, intelligence, great ability, a splendid courage: there are only a few "best things" that make up "Syd." It would take a page to write them all.

Mary Anne Mallison, A.B.

1931-'32—College Statistics; College Cheer Leader; Hockey Team; Tennis Team; Business Manager of Annual; F. M. C. Monogram.

"Oh woman thou wert fashioned to be guile:
So have all sages said, all poets sung."

In every class there must be some fun and who could provide it better than Mary Anne with her broad A's and Virginia accent. For pep and wit and sparkling personality—I give you Mary Anne!!

MINNIE WARE MOORE, A.B.
Lexington, Va.

E. X.

"The world knows nothing of its greatest men."

If there were no "Minnies" in the world, it would be a poor existence. Here is a "Minnie" that has carried her share of the work of the class of '32 faithfully and creditably.

1928-'29—Circle Treasurer.
1929-'30—Circle Secretary.
1930-'31—Prayer Band Leader; Vice-President Palmetto Club.

"She hath a natural wise sincerity, a simple truthfulness."

In this age of mistrust and deceit it is a pleasure to find someone who is sincere and true in their relationships. Louise, we are glad we can always count on your loyalty.

CATHERINE MCLEAN, A.B.
Red Springs, N. C.

1930-'31—Assistant Business Manager of Annual.
1931-'32—Treasurer of Senior Class.

"She in beauty, education, blood
Holds hand with any princess of the world."

A genuine princess not only has intelligence and beauty but culture and charm. Catherine has all these qualities and many more. In fact we think she is sufficiently talented to some day become - - - (ask anyone who was in English 10 with her).

ELIZABETH MCNEILL, A.B.

1931-'32—F. M. C. A. Cabinet; President Senior S. S. Class.

"From the fields of her soul—a fragrance ascended Charity, meekness, love and hope, and forgiveness and patience."

Elizabeth, the artist, the poet, the student, above all the lover of all things beautiful and good and creator of beauty. Not only possessor of esthetic qualities but strength of mind and will to triumph over the physical. With these gifts life will surely be rich in joy and all that make living sweet and enjoyable.

CLARA FINLEY OGILVIE, A.B.

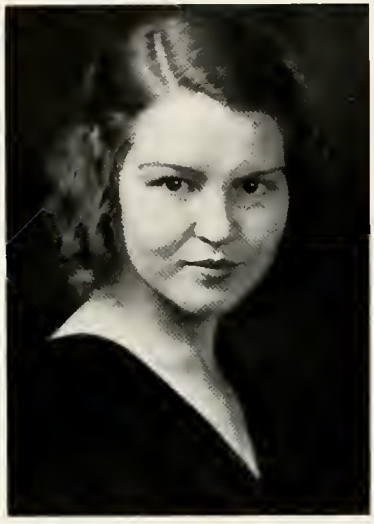
1931-'32—Class Historian; Hockey Team; Manager Tea Room; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; Chairman Religious Meetings Circle; Senior Scribbler.

"To those who know thee not no words can paint
And those who know thee know all words are waint."

This is true, words are so inadequate to describe Clara. How so much intelligence, wit, humor, and originality, and at the same time thoughtfulness and unselfishness can be bound up in so small a person as Clara will always be a mystery. To merely wish that you'll be as successful in your future work as you were with the Senior Tea Room is to wish you Success.



EVANGELINE PENDLETON, B.M.

GLADYS LANE PITTMAN, A.B.

Z.

1930-'31—Chief Marshal; Class Statistics; Vice-President Conservatory.
1931-'32—Recording Secretary E. X.; Class Tennis Manager; Secretary Conservatory; Hockey Team.

"So well she acted all and every part
By turns—with that vivacious versatility."

Never in such a small package was there such a charming creature. Anything "Vangie" undertakes is done well. We predict a great future for her. Thousands will sit enthralled while the music of "Ann Leaf Junior" thrills them as only good music can.

1928-'29—Montreat Normal School.
1930-'31—College Chorus; Commencement Marshal; Assistant Editor of Annual.
1931-'32—Glee Club; Editor of Annual; Senior Scribbler.

"A little laughter, love and leisure lengthen life."

There is something about her that you can't resist. Beauty, brains, and friendliness sprinkled with a vivacious personality will make us long remember our Gladys.

PAULINE PORTER, B.M.
Laurinburg, N. C.

E. X.

"Tho' no rings on her fingers or bells on her toes Pauline will have music wherever she goes."

Pauline is not big of stature but she's mighty in works. She confronts a Steinway Grand with as much ease as the rest of us sit down to the dining room table. May she give to the world as much pleasure, both musically and personally, as she has the girls at Flora Macdonald.

FRANCES BLUE SMITH, A.B.

1931-'32—Treasurer E. X.; President of S. C. Club; Head of Hiking; Hockey Team; Basketball Team; Manager of Basketball Team; Class Cheer Leader.

"Happy am I, from care I'm free
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

True Frances presents a carefree and jolly appearance, yet she always has time to say a cheery word to everyone. Could we ever forget her loyalty to '32—her pep and energy on the hockey field and basketball court and in all her good spirit. May you always keep it up, ole dear!

1931-'32—President F. M. C. A.; Student Council; Glee Club.

"Heart on her lips, and soul within her eyes,
Soft as her clime and sunny as her skies."

A joyous companion lending mirth and happiness to all who come in contact with her. Her laughing brown eyes and sunny disposition have meant much to our sojourn at F. M. C. And greater than that, that deep spiritual self that has meant so much to the F. M. C. A.

Helen Thompson, A.B.

Hamlet, N. C.

E. X.

1929-'30—Secretary Social Service Circle.
1930-'31—Vice-President Life Service Band, Secretary Bible Study Circle.
1931-'32—Chairman Bible Study Circle; F. M. C. A. Cabinet; President Life Service Band.

"Patient of toil, serene amidst alarms;
Inflexible in faith; invincible in arms."

Helen mingles in "life's throng and press" in such a quiet, unassuming manner that few people realize her true worth. Her faithfulness to duty, her joy in helping others and in everything her sincerity portrays the real Helen.

But my best praise is, that I am your friend."

In Jo we have combined brains, leadership, and athletic ability flavored with many other qualities.

If people are pleasant to think on it is a good test of their personalities. Jo is not only pleasant to think of but she is a charming companion too. And as for witty, just talk with her sometime!
